

Ishmael D. Dillman

Ishmael D. Dillman, 72, Center, died at 4 a.m. Monday in Howard Community Hospital where he had been a patient for one day.

Born April 16, 1895, in Center, he was the son of Edom and Mary (Phillips) Dillman. He had lived in Center all of his life.

He attended the Hemlock Baptist Church and was a veteran of World War I.

He was a retired employe of Stellite Works of Material Systems Division.

On April 16, 1927, he was married to Bertha Jarrett, who preceded him in death Aug. 22, 1965.

Among the survivors are two sons, Max E. Dillman, Russiaville R. R. 2, and Dale E. Dillman, Greentown R. R. 1; a grandson; a granddaughter; a brother, Ward Dillman, Center; three sisters, Mrs. Roxie Cox, Sharpsville, Mrs. Ruth Cox, Center, and Mrs. Edgar (Hester) Campbell, Kokomo, and several nieces and nephews. A brother and a sister are deceased.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the Fenn Funeral Home with the Rev. Chester Mitchell officiating. Burial will be in the Albright Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 2 p.m. Tuesday.