

LOUISE LARKE

Jan. 24, 1943 – April 5, 2006

Louise A. Larke, 63, Kokomo, died at 2:17 a.m. Wednesday, April 5, 2006, at St. Joseph Hospital. She was born Jan. 24, 1943, in Louisville, Ky., a daughter of Marion H. & Bessie F. Dain.

Louise A. Larke

Louise was a 1962 graduate of Kokomo High School. She served as a medical corpsman in the Army. She was a certified medical assistant, certified nursing assistant and was a certified interior designer and decorator. She was currently working as a medical assistant at Waterford Health Campus.

She enjoyed designing silk flower arrangements, making crafts, shopping and spending time with her grandchildren.

Survivors include one daughter and son-in-law, Victoria and William Guerre of Kokomo; two sons and one daughter-in-law, Paul and Teresa Larke of Houston, Texas, James Larke of Murfreesboro, Tenn.; grandchildren, Tosha, Adrienne and Kayla Larke, Brittany and Danielle Larke, William "Billy" Guerre, III, Abigail, Anna and Margaret Guerre; one great-grandson, Braxton Larke; and one brother and sister-in-law, Danny and Karla Dain of Kokomo. She was preceded in death by her parents, Marion "Pop" and Bessie Dain; and one sister, Anna Lea Dain.

Services will be held at 7 p.m. Saturday in Shirley & Stout Funeral Home-Grecu Chapel, 414 W. Jefferson St., with the Rev. Fr. Dennis J. O'Keeffe officiating. Friends are invited to call from 4 p.m. until service time on Saturday. Private burial will made in Albright Cemetery on Monday morning. Memorial contributions