

David H. McBee

July 17, 1950 - Nov. 1, 2005

David H. McBee, 55, Russiaville, died at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 1, 2005, at Methodist Hospital in Indianapolis. He was born July 17, 1950, in Kokomo, the son of Cloman and Margaret Bernice (Lytle) McBee.

He married Kathleen S. (McConnell) McBee on Dec. 29, 1975, in Kokomo. She survives.

He worked skilled trades at Delphi for 33 years. He graduated from Kokomo High School and Ivy Tech State College. He was enlisted in the U.S. Army for two years, where he was stationed in Germany.

Lifetime member of the Harley Owner's Group, and the UAW 292. He enjoyed hunting, fishing, motorcycles, traveling with his family, collecting coins, and being outdoors. He loved spending time with family and spoiling his grandchildren.

Surviving are wife Kathleen S. McBee, Russiaville; daughter, Kelly and Phil Williams of Russiaville; two sons, Eric and Tammy McBee of Tipton, Ryan McBee; and special friend Jennifer Strokes of Chicago; four grandchildren, Brook Harshman, Dylan McBee, Blake Williams, and Alyson Williams; sister, Kathy McBee of Kokomo; three brothers, Dale and Judy McBee of Greenwood, and Tim and Susie McBee of Kokomo, Delmer McBee of Kokomo; and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

Calling will be from 3 to 7 p.m. Friday at Ellers Mortuary, Webster Street Chapel, 3400 S. Webster St. Services are 10 a.m. Saturday at funeral home. David's cousin, the Rev. Jerry McBee of Tennessee, will officiate. Burial will be in Albright Cemetery, with military rites performed by the VFW Military Rites Team. Memorial contributions may be made to the American Stroke Association.

Source: Kokomo Tribune

Published: 11/03/2005