

Mrs. Marley McBee

Mrs. Marley A. McBee, 56, 1116 E. Mulberry, died at the Bluffton Clinic at 1 a.m. Sunday following an illness of seven years.

She was born in Sharps Chapel, Tennessee in 1910, a daughter of Fate and Louisa Dossett Ellison, and has been a resident of Kokomo since 1938. She was married to Lora McBee in 1925 and he survives.

Mrs. McBee was a member of the Taylor Creek Primitive Baptist Church in Swayzee.

Survivors include her husband; three sons, Cloman and Sturlin McBee of Kokomo and SSG Clarence McBee of Griffis Air Force Base, New York; her father in Sharps Chapel; six sisters, Mrs. Leonard (Esther) McBee, Kokomo; Mrs. Sarah Brantley, and Mrs. Plumer (Ottie) McBee, both of Maryville, Tenn., Mrs. Bessie McCarty and Mrs. Donna Barnard, both of Sharps Chapel, and Mrs. Irene Bridges, Hermatiage, Tenn.; four brothers, Mattehew Ellison, Windfall, Ulysses Ellison, Walton, Jefferson Ellison of Maryville, Tenn., and Swan Ellison, Sharps Chapel; and thirteen grandchildren.

Services will be at 4 p.m. Tuesday at the Ellers Chapel with Elder Clifford Brantley officiating. Burial will be in Albright Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Ellers Chapel after 3 p.m. today.