

JAMES H. ADAMS

Oct. 16, 1929 – June 27, 2005

James H. Adams, 75, Carmel, died 9:50 p.m. Monday, June 27, 2005, at St. Michaels Hospital in Stevens Point, Wis.

He was born Oct. 16, 1929, in Gary, a son of James and Lola (Tatman/Adams) Henderson. He was married to Jean M. Holman on Aug. 20, 1950, at First Congregational Christian Church in Kokomo. Mrs. Adams passed away July 31, 2004.

James Adams

He was a 1951 graduate of Wabash College and a member of Kappa Sigma Fraternity. He served in the Armed Forces of the United States. He had a long career with Inland Container Corp. and belonged to many organizations throughout his life.

He was a lifetime member of the BPO Elks Lodge 768, Portland. He was an avid reader and sports fan and a staunch Republican who openly loved his country and the freedom it afforded him. He gave unconditional love to his family and friends. Lastly, he was loyal to the Green Bay Packers.

Surviving are daughter, Jane (Patrick) Witkowski of Stevens Point, Wis.; son, John (Sandy) Adams of Alpena, Mich.; four sisters, Anita Gulin of Gothenburg, Sweden; Holly (Barc) Gano of Granville, Ohio; Susan (Steve) Lumm of Palo Alto, Calif.; Verna (John) Boudett of San Anselmo, Calif.; six grandchildren; three stepgrandchildren and many nieces and nephews. He is further survived by his sister-in-law, Joan Holman of Kokomo; loving aunts, Garnet Gerdes of San Jacinto, Calif., and Jessie Folkerth of Albany; and devoted family friend, Imogene Winslow of Kokomo.

Memorial services will be held 1 p.m. Monday at First Congregational Christian Church, 505 W. Mulberry St., with the Rev. Donald Urey officiating. Services will begin with an Elks memorial service conducted by the Kokomo Elks Lodge #90. Burial of the cremains will follow in Crown Point Cemetery with military honors provided by the Kokomo V.F.W. Military Rites Team. Friends may call at the church from noon until service time on Monday.

In lieu of flowers, the family has asked that contributions be made in his memory to the Wabash College Alumni Fund, Class of 1951, c/o Wabash College; P.O. Box 352; Crawfordsville, IN 47933. Arrangements were entrusted to Shirley & Stout Funeral Home, Lincoln Road Chapel.