

MARY LOUISE COOK

Feb. 13, 1914 - Sept. 2, 2005

Mary Louise Cook, 91, Kokomo, died at 9:30 a.m. Friday, Sept. 2, 2005, at Northwoods Village Health Care Center. She was born Feb. 13, 1914, in Kokomo, the daughter of Mary K. (Erwin) Brown and Earl E. Brown. On July 3, 1937, in South Bend, she married Robert C. Cook, who preceded her in death June 14, 1995.

She was a homemaker and provided laundry service out of her home for customers. She was a member of First Friends Meeting in Kokomo.

Surviving are one daughter, Judy K. Smith, Peru; one sister, Thelma M. Miller, Kokomo; three grandchildren, Jerry L. and Kay Wolfe, Peru, Julie K. and Jeff Spencer, Nyona Lake, and Kelly Tedlock, Russiaville; six great-grandchildren, Malinda K. and Jamie Taylor, Peru, Kyler J. Spencer, Nyona Lake, Kellyan Tedlock, Lauren Tedlock, Kaylin Tedlock and Chelsea Tedlock, all of Kokomo; and several nieces and nephews. Also, she had one great-great-grandson expected in October of this year.

She was preceded in death by her husband, parents and one brother, Wilbur Brown, who died young.

Services will be at 1 p.m. Wednesday at Ellers Mortuary, 725 S. Main St., Kokomo. Pastor Justin Weber will officiate. Friends may call from 4 to 7 p.m. Tuesday at the mortuary. Burial will be in Crown Point Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to First Friends Meeting, 1801 Zartman Road, Kokomo, IN 46902.

Source: Kokomo Tribune

Published: 9/04/2005