

Cecil Dulin

Cecil P. Dulin, 93, 2905 W. Sycamore St, Sycamore Village, died at 2:08 a.m. Monday, Sept. 18, 2000, at the facility. She was the daughter of Elliott and Daisy (Ferguson) Galladay. She was married to James Dulin, who preceded her in death.

She had lived in Kokomo since 1923. She was a member of Historic Wayman Chapel A.M.E. Church which she joined in 1924. She served as a stewardess (Board #1), pastors aid, ladies chorus, usher, and performed many other duties in the church. She was also a member of Carver Community Center, the NAACP, and the Chumming Club. She was well known and well loved in the community. She leaves a host of friends and neighbors.

Services are 1 p.m. Thursday at Wayman Chapel A.M.E. Church, 920 Apperson Way N. Dr. Michael Carson will officiate. Burial will be in Crown Point Cemetery. Friends may call from 11 a.m. - 1 p.m. Thursday before the service, at the church. Bluitt Funeral Home, 511 E. Monroe St., is in charge of the arrangements.

Burial Thursday, September 21, 2000
Lot 1 Section 28
Book 11 Page 107
Cement vault