

ARLETTA W. L. HATCHER

Sept. 27, 1927 – Nov. 10, 2004

Arletta W. L. Hatcher, 77, 1265 E. Jefferson St., died 9:20 a.m. Wednesday, Nov. 10, 2004, at her residence. Born Sept. 27, 1927, in Clarksville, Tenn., she was a daughter of William Day and Etta Larkins.

She was employed for 31 years as a machine operator with Delco Electronics.

She was a member of Second Missionary Baptist Church, Ruth Circle, Culinary Committee, Bible study and the UAW Local 292. She loved sewing and crocheting.

Survivors include a son, Emmitt Ross Hatcher Jr., and a daughter, Venetta Hatcher, both of Kokomo; and one grandchild, Aaron Ross Hatcher, Montgomery, Ala.

Services are 11 a.m. Saturday at Second Missionary Baptist Church, 818 N. Apperson Way. Dr. Robert A. Lee is the eulogist and officiant. Burial will be in Crown Point Cemetery. Friends may call from 9 to 11 a.m. Saturday at the church. Memorials may be made to the American Red Cross, American Diabetes Association, or the American Cancer Society. Arrangements were entrusted to Bluitt & Son Funeral Home.

Arletta W. L.
Hatcher