

ARTHUR J. LUDWIG

Arthur J. Ludwig, 61, died Wednesday at his home seven miles west of Kokomo on the Sycamore street road following a short illness.

He was the son of George and Emma Ludwig and was born December 12, 1884 in Paulding, Ohio. He was married June 15, 1913 to Carrie Kenworthy.

Surviving with the widow are three sons, Robert of Kokomo, Kermit at home and Eugene with the U. S. Marines corps in North China. There are two grandchildren, Carole and Stephen Ludwig, also two brothers and a sister, Otto Ludwig of Paulding, Ohio, Leonard of Eastport, Md. and Mrs. Edna Coe of Fremont, Ohio, with a host of relatives and friends.

Mr. Ludwig was a member of the Friends church at New London and of the Masonic lodge.

Funeral services will be held at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the New London Friends church, with interment in the New London cemetery.

The casket will not be opened at the church.

Source:

Publication Date: