

Lura Nash

Lura B. Nash, 83, 3242 N. Road 1175 West, Kempton, died 7:45 a.m. Saturday, July 3, 1999, in Tipton Nursing Home, Tipton. She was born Dec. 29, 1915, in Howard County, the daughter of Howard and Lena (Honey) Long. She was the wife of John M. Nash, who survives. They were married Feb. 14, 1942, in Hobbs.

She and her husband owned and operated John Deer Dealership in Tipton from 1967 to 1976. She also worked as a bookkeeper and proofreader at Moores Printing Co., Kokomo. She graduated in 1933 from West Middleton High School. She was a member of Kemp United Methodist Church, Tipton, and she played organ and piano for the former Twin Springs Methodist Church West Middleton, Kokomo Main Street, Galveston, Windfall Methodist churches.

Also surviving are a son and daughter-in-law, Raymond L. and Lois Nash, Clay Center, Kan.; a daughter and son-in-law, Cynthia and Stanley Neu, Evansville; five grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren.

One stillborn sister and her parents.

Services will be 10 a.m. Wednesday at Stout & Son Funeral, 200 E. Main St., Russiaville. The Rev. Jim Fritz will officiate. Burial will be in New London Cemetery, Russiaville. Friends may call from 4 to 8 p.m. Tuesday at the funeral home. Memorial contributions may be made to United Parkinson's Foundation. Envelopes are available at the funeral home.