

KOT. Died—Newcomb

4/10-21-1906

William Newcomb died Sunday night at 8:45 o'clock at his late home, 176 Brandon street, of typhoid fever, aged 26 years. Deceased was employed until his late fatal illness at the Kokomo steel mill. He was a son of John Newcomb, of Ervin township. He was united in marriage early in April to Miss Eva Coy, who survives him.

A short funeral service will be held Tuesday morning at the house for the benefit of his fellow workmen conducted by Rev. T. S. Wilson. Another service will be conducted at New London by Rev. James Newlin.

Source: Kokomo Dispatch