ZIMRI NEWLIN

15 Oct 1820 - 14 Mar 1895

Son of John and Ruth (Wordey) Newlin was born in North Carolina October 15, 1820. When he was six years old, he removed with his parents to Parke County, Ind., where he was reared and educated. He then farmed for about six years, and in 1846 he located on his present farm in Howard County. This farm is situated a half mile east of New London, and is now finely improved. Mr. Newlin is one of the pioneers of Howard County, and has experienced many of the privations of pioneer life. He was married in Parke County, Ind., January 22, 1846, to Isabella Chapman, of England. She died August 16, 1870, in Howard County, Ind. By this marriage he had Elvin, Cora A., and Ella I. Mr. Newlin was next married at New London, Ind., December 13, 1872, to Nancy A Whitson. She was born in Darke County, Ohio, May 1, 1832. Mr. Newlin is Republican, and he and family are members of the Friends' Church.
