

Nov. HENRY B. REIBER 1946

Henry B. Reiber, a former resident of Kokomo and New London, died at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning at the home of a grandson in South Bend. Had he lived until January 1 he would have been 90 years old.

The only survivors are the grandson, a granddaughter and several great-grandchildren. His wife died about five years ago and an only daughter three years ago. While a resident here Mr. Reiber was a member of the Pilgrim Holiness church.

Funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock Saturday morning at a South Bend funeral home with the Rev. Ernest Carroll officiating. The body will then be brought to New London for burial beside the wife there. Short graveside services will be held about 1 o'clock by the Rev. Carl Reed of Logansport and the Rev. E. J. Clem, evangelist of Kokomo.
