

BEULAH WILSON

Jan. 2, 1918 - Feb. 2, 2003

RUSSEVILLE — Beulah S. Wilson, 85, Russiaville, died 1:40 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 2, 2003, at Windsor Estates Health & Rehab Center in Kokomo. Born Jan. 2, 1918, in Manchester, Ohio, she was the daughter of Oscar and Lou (Eastburn) Smith. On Feb. 14, 1963, she married Robert C. Wilson, and he preceded her in death April 22, 1969.

She was a homemaker and was retired from Haynes-Stellite Corp., Kokomo, where she worked in the lab for more than 30 years.

She was a member of the Quarter Century Club.

Surviving are two stepsons, Ralph and wife Lennie Wilson, Kokomo, and Ernie Wilson, New Lebanon, Ohio; one daughter-in-law, Carolyn Goodman, West Union, Ohio; three grandchildren, Linda J. McKewen, Sanford, Fla., Mark E. and wife Diane Goodman, West Chester, Ohio, and Steven R. and wife Sandra Goodman, Bryant, Ala.; three step-grandsons, Randy and wife Lori Wilson, Converse, Rex and wife Kathy Wilson, Logansport, Rick and wife Vicky Wilson, Monon; four other step-grandchildren in Ohio; four great-grandchildren; eight step great-grandchildren; and five step great-great grandchildren. Including her husband, she was preceded in death by one son, Gary Richard "Sonny" Goodman.

Services are 2 p.m. Friday at Stout & Son Funeral Home, 200 E. Main St., Russiaville, with the Rev. John Rhodes officiating. Burial will be in New London Cemetery. Friends may call noon until 2 p.m. Friday prior to the service at the funeral home.

Source: Kokomo Tribune