

Nathaniel Coffman

KEMPTON — Nathaniel Jacob Coffman, one day old, 10411 W. Road 100 S., Kempton, died at 1:41 p.m., Friday, Sept. 8, 2000, at Riley Hospital for Children, Indianapolis, after being in a car accident. Born Sept. 7, 2000, in Kokomo, he was the son of Aaron and Rachel (Collins) Coffman.

Surviving are the parents; a brother, Cole M. Coffman, at home; paternal grandparents, Richard and Diane Coffman, Kokomo; maternal grandparents, Rich and Anna Collins, Cherokee, N.C.; paternal great-grandparent, Raydean Jones, Kokomo; maternal great-grandparents Naomi (Collins) Widner, Kokomo; Bertha Gnapp, Lake Villa, Ill.; aunts and uncles, Zachery Coffman, Kokomo; Chris Coffman, Greentown; Lisa McDougley, Windfall; Ricky Collins and Craig Collins, both of Cherokee, N.C.; Rebecka and Jeremy King, Kokomo. He was preceded in death by maternal grandfathers, Carlos Collins Sr., and Steven Gnapp Sr.; paternal grandparents, Charles and Maxine Coffman and Julius Jones.

Graveside services are 3 p.m. Wednesday at Russiaville Cemetery. The Rev. Earl Collins will officiate. Burial will follow in the cemetery. Family will receive friends after the service at 5241 Council Ring Blvd. Memorial contributions may be given to the family or send to the funeral home. Stout & Son Funeral Home, 200 E. Main St., is in charge of the arrangements.