

Dean W. Brackney

Dean Willard Brackney, 61, 1821 S. Buckeye St., former owner of Dean's Donuts, died at 7:10 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 15, 1977, in Howard Community Hospital following an extended illness.

Born April 10, 1916, in Moultrie County, Ill., he was the son of Nell and Fern (Wagner) Brackney. He was married April 11, 1944, to Mildred Loula, who survives.

He retired from business in 1971.

Also surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Dennis (Barbara) Gilliland of Kokomo; four sons, Richard Brackney of Denver, Colo., Donald Brackney of Indianapolis, Robert Brackney, at home, and Glen Brackney of Washington, D.C.; two brothers, Jack Brackney of Chatham, Ill., and Vincent Brackney of Tipton; three sisters, Mrs. Clurry (Marie) Hale of Detroit, Mich., Mrs. James (Louise) Young of Kokomo and Mrs. Richard (Ruth) Brooks of Ludlow, Ill.

Services will be at 3 p.m. Saturday in Eilers Mortuary with the Rev. Leroy Kinnaman officiating. Burial will be in Sunset Memory Gardens. Friends may call from 4 to 9 p.m. Friday (today.)