

Thomas M. Brass
Dec. 31, 1979 pg. 9

MONTICELLO, Ind. — Thomas M. Brass, 72, Monticello R.R. 5, died in St. Joseph Memorial Hospital, Kokomo, at 6:30 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 29, 1979.

He was born in Kokomo May 6, 1907, the son of the late Thomas W. Brass and Mae (Hapner) Brass of Kokomo, who survives. He was married Aug. 20, 1927, to Helen Simmons, who died Oct. 22, 1960.

Also surviving are a son, C. Robert Brass of Galveston R.R. 1; three brothers, Harold Brass of Kokomo, Frank Brass of Muncie and Morris Brass of Swayzee; two sisters, Rosemary Butler and Iona Burt, both of Kokomo; four grandchildren; four stepgrandchildren; two step great-grandchildren, and a great-grandchild. A brother preceded him in death.

He had been employed for 18 years at Stellite Division Cabot Corp. and retired in 1964.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday at Fenn Funeral Home with the Rev. Charles Babcock officiating. Burial will be in Sunset Memory Gardens Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home from 2 to 9 p.m. Tuesday.

Name corrected

Jan. 2, 1980 pg. 7

Due to a Tribune error, the name of a surviving brother was listed incorrectly in Monday's obituary of Thomas M. Brass, 72, Monticello R.R. 5.

He is Forrest Brass of Swayzee.