

Forest Coopridge

RUSSEVILLE — Forest Coopridge, 67, died of a heart attack at his home, Sharpville R.R. 1, Wednesday afternoon.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday at the Stout and Son Funeral Chapel in Russiaville. The Rev. Francis Brown will officiate and burial will follow in Sunset Memory Gardens.

Friends may call at the chapel after 1 p.m. Friday.

The son of Clinton and Ida Guthrie Coopridge, he was born in Clay City, Ind., Aug. 8, 1893. He moved to Kokomo in 1915 and had spent most of his life in the Kokomo vicinity.

On Sept. 4, 1920, he married Mary Elizabeth Ellis, who preceded him in death July 20, 1954. He was a tinner, a grocery operator and a farmer.

Surviving are two daughters,

Mrs. Delbert (Ruth) Johnson of Sharpville R.R. 1 and Mrs. Helen Shallenberger of California; two sisters, Mrs. Sam Guerin and Mrs. Unetia Grantham, both of Terre Haute; three brothers, Fred and George, both of Clay City, and Raymond of Terre Haute; and six grandchildren. Two sisters preceded him in death.