

E. JANE DANIELS

E. Jane Daniels died unexpectedly Wednesday, March 9, 2005, while traveling in Texas. She was born Dec. 26. She was the daughter of Lora N. and Nannie F. (McElroy) Burton. On April 22, 1978, in Kokomo, she married Billy G. "Jose" Daniels.

She graduated from Kokomo High School in 1954. She was a beautician for many years, owning her own salon. In 1981, she moved to Pompano Beach, Fla., and began a successful career owning and operating tj Norris Modeling and Talent Agency. After retiring, she moved to Grand Rapids, Mich., where she enjoyed spending time with her family and friends. She loved her family very much and enjoyed all the time she was able to spend with them. She loved to cook and for several years was a chef at CranHill Ranch Christian Ministries Camp in Rodney, Mich. She enjoyed traveling and meeting people. She was known by her grandchildren as Mimi and her great-grandchildren knew her as Great Mimi. To answer her favorite question -- They all love their Mimi.

Besides her husband, she is survived by her four children, Jana L. and her husband, Michael Allspach, of Grand Rapids, Mich., Candy J. Russell and her partner, Ann Hatch of Plantation, Fla., Eric D. Russell and wife Stacy of Lowell, Mich., and Gigi L. and her husband, Matthew Peal, of Lowell, Mich.; her 11 grandchildren, Shawn Wright, Chad Wright, Jaime Allspach, Jennifer Allspach, Michelle Allspach, Nickolas Hatch, Ashley Spencer, Payton Russell, Jordan Timmer, Lauren Peal and Collin Peal; her four great-grandchildren, Carson Wright, Holly Wright, Mark Wright and Hope Wright; her two sisters, Nina Coombs and Hazel Burton, both of Kokomo; and her two brothers, Marshal Burton, Kokomo, and Frank Burton, Lebanon. She is also survived by many nieces, nephews and extended family whom she loved dearly. She was preceded in death by three brothers, Calvin Burton, Elmo Burton and George Woodrow Burton; one sister, Bonnie E. Burton and a very special great-nephew, Jonas Coombs.

Visitation will be held Sunday, March 13, 2005, from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m. at Ellers Mortuary, Webster Street Chapel, 3400 S. Webster St. The funeral will be at 1 p.m. Monday, March 14, 2005, at Ellers Mortuary Webster Street Chapel. Pastor Greg Reed will be officiating. Entombment will be at Sunset Memorial Garden Mausoleum.

Source: Kokomo Tribune

Publication Date: 3/13/2005