

Lee A. Dunlap

Lee A. Dunlap, 67, died suddenly at 5:20 p. m. Tuesday in his home, 1911 N. Indiana Ave. He had been a life long resident of Kokomo.

Friends may call after 7 p. m. Wednesday (tonight) at the Long Funeral Home, where services will be conducted to 2 p. m. Friday by the Rev. Stanley Purvis. Burial will be in Sunset Memory Gardens.

Mr. Dunlap was born in Eaton, O., Jan. 19, 1891, the son of John and Emma (Gates) Dunlap. In December, 1924 he married Gladys Moss, who died Jan. 4, 1957.

Employed by the American Standard Plumbing and Heating Co., he started working there in 1919 as a polisher. He served as a private in World War I with the Fourth Army Corps., and saw service in France.

Surviving are four children, Don M. Rice of West Middleton and Mrs. Ruth Crouch, Mrs. Norma Michael and Mrs. Phyllis Warwick, all of Kokomo; a brother, Alva R. of Kokomo; four sisters, Mrs. Lora Gray and Mrs. Lucy Humble, both of Kokomo, and Mrs. Addie Homan and Mrs. Sarah Cole, both of Eaton, eight grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews. A brother and a sister preceded him in death.