

Gayle F. Goodnight

Gayle F. Goodnight, 3052 S. E. Lakeshore Drive, Nyona Lake, and formerly of Kokomo, died at 5:32 a.m. Sunday, Feb. 21, 1999, in his home.

He was born Aug. 6, 1934, in Kokomo, the son of Thelma L. (James) and Everette H. Goodnight.

He married Marilyn R. (Jacoutot) Goodnight on Feb. 9, 1953, in Kokomo. She survives.

He was a retired teamster truck driver for Brada Miller Trucking, Clements Trucking and Roadway and he retired from Economics Laboratory Inc. He attended Kokomo High

Goodnight

School. He was a member of Teamsters Local No. 135, Kokomo Eagles Lodge No. 255, Antique Clock Association and Vintage BMW Association. He was a collector of antique bicycles and antique bells.

Surviving in addition to his wife are his mother, Thelma L. Brown, Kokomo; four daughters and two sons-in-law, Jackie S. Goodnight, Kokomo, Marcia A. Maxwell, Forest, Kathy E. and Don Rust, Marion, Ohio, and Jody and Tim Coate, Kokomo; two sons and two daughters-in-law, Mike and Patty Goodnight, Kokomo, and Gary F. and Carol Goodnight, Cicero; a sister, Patsy Kay Wollicale, Kokomo; 12 grandchildren, Lucinda Goodnight, Clinton Maxwell, Dawn Bizjak, Kristie Neal, Matt Bizjak, Jenny Coate, Jed Coate, Sarah Goodnight, Kate Goodnight, Jenny Goodnight, Grant Goodnight and Gail Goodnight; three great-grandchildren, Schyler Neal, Mckenzie Neal and Taylor Hancock.

Preceding him in death was his father.

Services will be 1 p.m. Wednesday at Ellers Mortuary, Main Street Chapel, 725 S. Main St. Burial will be in Sunset Memory Gardens Cemetery with Pastor Steve Allen officiating. Friends may call from 4 to 8 p.m. today at Ellers Mortuary, Main Street Chapel.

Memorial contributions may be made to Hope Hospice Inc., P.O. Box 621, Rochester, Ind., 46975.