

ETHEL LEE (CORNELIUS) GREEN

March 6, 1933 - Sept. 29, 2008

Ethel Lee (Cornelius) Green, 75, Kokomo, passed away at 8:03 p.m. Monday, Sept. 29, 2008, in her home. She was born on March 6, 1933, in Portageville, Mo., to Robert Henry and Emma Lee (Samelton) Cornelius.

She was employed at Chrysler Transmission Plant, working on the assembly line for 12 years.

Ethel is survived by her children, Glory Jean Young, Willie and Irene Ernestine Lewis, Robert and Viki Green, Mary Young, Edward Young, and Harry Young, all of Kokomo, Kent Green-Young, Carson City, Nev., and Kenneth Green-Young, Madison Wis.; grandchildren, Eric Young and Nadie, Madison, Wis., Reese Young, Derico Young, Charles Woodard III and Terrie, Tom Woodard, Ron Woodard, April Davis, Kalesia Forte, Tinnie Cleaver, Robert, Michelle, and Debinique, all of Kokomo, and La Tasha Green, Virginia; 13 great-grandchildren; brothers, Robert Cornelius, Alabama,

Ethel Lee
(Cornelius)
Green

Willie Lee Cornelius and Dorothy, Benton Harbor Mich., Esley, Tony, John, Napolian, Micheal and Melvin and Janet Cornelius, all of Cairo, Ill.; sisters, Esabelle Harris, Pauline Fletcher, Louis Gaither, all of Kokomo, Viola Lyons, Estella Bellamy, Virginia King, Rose Lee Robertson, all of Milwaukee, Wis.; and a host of nieces and nephews.

Along with her parents, Ethel was preceded in death by three daughters; five brothers, Robert Henry Cornelius, Glenn Cornelius, James Cornelius, Charles L. Cornelius and William Cornelius; three sisters, Emmaline Rogers, Cora Mae and Angela Maudie Jane Thomas; a niece, Ethel Mae Tyler; brother-in-law, Robert Fletcher; and her best friend, Margret Hillman.

Funeral services for Ethel are noon Saturday at Fountain of Life Worship Center, 611 E. Jackson St., with Bishop Charles E. Glenn officiating. Burial will follow in Sunset Memory Garden Cemetery. Visitation is 11 a.m. until time of service at the church. Memorial contributions may be given to the American Cancer Society. Ellers Mortuary Main St. Chapel assisted the family with arrangements.

Online condolences may be sent to the Green family at www.ellersmortuary.com.