

VERNON R. INGLE

Feb. 4, 1916 - June 21, 2004

Kokomo resident Vernon R. Ingle, 88, died in Northwoods Village on June 21, 2004 at 2:55 a.m.

He was born Feb. 4, 1916 in Milwaukee, Wis., the son of Vern A. and Alma Johnson Ingle Thatcher. He married Margaret E. Talbert on July 12, 1937 in Lebanon and she survives.

Vernon was a 1934 graduate, Kokomo High School. He worked at Haynes-Stellite as an engineer for 35 years, retiring in 1971.

He was a member, the Quarter Century Club. He enjoyed reading and watching television and was a fan, the Cubs and the Pacers.

He is survived by his wife of 66 years, Margaret Ingle, Kokomo; sons Larry Ingle and wife Judy, Kokomo, David Ingle and wife Julia, Kokomo and Robert Ingle and wife Jane, St. Louis, Mo.; grandchildren; Mary Dowden and husband Kevin, Michael Ingle and wife Janelle, Greg Ingle, Keith Ingle and wife April, Susan Schieber and husband Dan, Ann-Marie Weger and husband Jeff, and Kristen Brainerd and husband Mike; 17 great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, a brother and a stepfather.

Private services will be held and entombment will be in Sunset Memory Garden Cemetery.

Friends may,fer condolences online at www.MeM.com.

Source: Kokomo Tribune

Publication Date: 6/22/2004