

William Kennedy

William H. Kennedy, 71, 2306 S. Webster St., died at 11 p.m. Thursday, July 29, 1976, in Howard Community Hospital, following an illness of one year.

Born Feb. 17, 1905, in Amboy, he was the son of Edward and Savannah (Godwin) Kennedy. On May 15, 1942, he married Pearl Lawhead, who survives.

He was a veteran of the U.S. Navy and was appointed to the Annapolis Training School in 1926. President Calvin Coolidge had appointed him to participate in an around the world good will tour.

He was a member of the Grace United Methodist Church, the Howard Lodge No. 93 F and AM; past president and national director of the National-Management Association. He had been employed as a foundry supervisor and tool and die maker at the Dirilyte Company of America.

Surviving with the widow are: two daughters, Mrs. Ruth Parker and Mrs. Betty Parker, both of Kokomo; three sisters, Mrs. Alpha Quick of Rochester, Mrs. Esther Haynes of Menlo Park, Calif. and Mrs. John (Ruth) Fredrick of Kokomo; one brother, Malcom Kennedy of Leesburg, Fla.; and four grandchildren.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Monday in the Fenn Funeral Home, with the Rev. Howard Fox officiating. Friends may call at the funeral home from 2 to 9 p.m. Sunday. Cremation will follow the services.

The family requests that memorials be made to the Cancer Fund or the charity of choice.
