

KARL L. KLEIN

Nov. 21, 1912 – Dec. 14, 2003

Karl L. Klein, 91, Kokomo, died 10 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 14, 2003, at his residence. He was born Nov. 21, 1912, in Sandusky, Ohio, the son of Charles and Rose Klein. In June 1932 he married Leland G. (Roach) Klein and she preceded him in death April 18, 1992. 17 Dec

He was an independent carpenter for over 80 years.

He was a member of the Rifle Association and enjoyed woodworking, hunting, fishing and re-finishing antique furniture.

Karl Klein

Survivors include two sons and daughters-in-law, Dick and Mary Klein, Tipton, and Chuck and Cindy Klein, Peru; a daughter, Pat Wines, Indianapolis; seven grandchildren; and 17 great-grandchildren. In addition to his wife, he was preceded in death by one son and two brothers. 17 Dec

Services are 1 p.m. Friday at Ellers Mortuary Main Street

Chapel, 725 S. Main St., with Steve Brown officiating. Entombment will be in Sunset Memory Garden Mausoleum. Friends may call 11 a.m. to service time Friday at the mortuary. Memorials may be made to a charity of the donor's choice.