

MARILYN E. LAMB

Aug. 26, 1928 - July 31, 2005

Longtime Greentown resident Marilyn E. Lamb, 76, died in Caring Hands HCC, Peru, at 6:10 p.m. Sunday, July 31, 2005. She was born Aug. 26, 1928, in New London, a daughter of Eugene Morris and Minerva Opal (Roth) Newlin. She married Robert Lamb in New London on Nov. 20, 1953, and he survives.

She was a graduate of New London High School, class of 1946, and received her accounting degree from Indiana Business College in 1948. After raising three daughters, she went to work as a licensed public accountant. She retired from Floyd McGuines Accounting in Bunker Hill after more than 10 years of service.

She attended Sycamore Friends Church where she played piano for Bible School. She enjoyed sewing, cross-stitching, gardening and canning.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by her mother, Minerva Newlin of Kokomo; her three daughters, Joanna and husband Larry Turner, Kokomo, Velda and husband Karl Kughen, Greentown, Sheri and husband Harold Kiser, Lafayette; her grandchildren, Steven Turner, Brittany Turner and Michael Kughen; and her brother, Lawrence Newlin. She was preceded in death by her father, Eugene Newlin.

Funeral services are scheduled for 11 a.m. Wednesday in Sunset Memory Garden Funeral Home, 2097 W. Alto Road, with the Rev. Lowell Nicholson officiating. Entombment will follow in Sunset Memory Garden Cemetery and Mausoleum. Friends may call from 4 to 8 p.m. today at the funeral home. Friends may offer their condolences online at www.mem.com. Memorial donations may be made to the Alzheimer's Association.

Source: Kokomo Tribune

Publication Date: 8/02/2005