

Richey services

Services for B. Leon Richey, 54, and Bonita Ann Richey, 48, 3319 S. Road 350 East, will be at 10:30 a.m. Thursday in Ellers Mortuary. The Rev. Leon Clark will officiate. His body will be entombed at Sunset Memory Gardens Mausoleum and hers in Sunset Memory Gardens.

B. Leon
Richey

Bonita
Richey

Friends may call from 4 to 8 p.m. Wednesday at the mortuary.

B. Leon died at 4:40 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 27, 1987, in Arkansas Methodist Hospital at Paragould, Ark. He was born July 21, 1933, in Eaton, Ark., a son of William J. and Grace (Helms) Richey.

July 2, 1981, he married Bonita Ann Dalton, who preceded him in death.

Employed at Delco Electronics in department 563, he was a member of United Auto Workers Local 292, U.S. Bass Club, Eagles Lodge, National Woodcarvers and Single Sirculators Square Dance Club.

Surviving are his father and stepmother, Mr. and Mrs. William Richey of Powhatan, Ark.; two sons, Timothy and Scott Richey, both of Kokomo; a daughter, Mrs. James (Marsha) White of Kokomo; a stepson, Bradley Dalton of Peru; a stepdaughter, Jean Dodson of Kokomo; a brother, Darrell Richey of Kokomo; two sisters, Berniece Caery of Texarkana, Ark., and Oneida Bryant of Kokomo; and two stepgrandchildren.

Bonita Ann died at 3:58 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 27, 1987, near Walnut Ridge, Ark. She was born July 2, 1939, in Sharon, the daughter of George and Minnie Calveard.

July 2, 1981, she married B. Leon Richey, who is deceased.

She was employed by Delco in department 563. She was a member of Local 292, Center Chapter Order of Eastern Star, Eagles Auxiliary, Bass-n-Gals and Single Sirculators Square Dance Club.

Surviving are a son, Bradley Dalton of Peru; a daughter, Jean Dodson of Kokomo; two stepsons, Timothy and Scott Richey, both of Kokomo; two stepdaughters, Mrs. James (Marsha) White of Kokomo and Karen Cooper of New Castle; two grandchildren; and six stepgrandchildren.