

Donald Ridlen

Donald O. Ridlen, 74, 603 St. Joseph Drive, died in the morning Saturday, Aug. 24, 2002, at his home in Jefferson Manor. Born May 5, 1928 in Hoopston, Ill., he was the son of Cecil O. and Nellie E. (Williams) Ridlen. On July 27, 1952, he married Donna L. (Alexander) Ridlen, who survives.

A 1948 graduate of Kokomo High School, he retired in 1993 from Delco Electronics where he worked in tool and die. He was a member of the Bible Baptist Church. He was an avid golfer and bowler.

Donald Ridlen

Surviving are his wife Donna L. Ridlen; sons and daughter-in-laws Daniel and Jhuliane Ridlen, Kokomo, and Stan and Terri Ridlen, Kokomo; daughter Janice and David Zimmer, Kokomo; grandchildren, Joshua, Kesha, Moshe, Casey, Anthony, Aaron, Audrey, Alexander, and Abram Ridlen and Amanda, Stephanie and Amber Zimmer; and sister and brother-in-law Betty and Kenneth Lamm, Indianapolis. He was preceded in death by his parents.

Services are 11 a.m. Wednesday at Ellers Mortuary, 3400 S. Webster St. Pastor Daniel Johnson will officiate. Entombment will be at the Sunset Memory Gardens Mausoleum. Friends may call from 4 to 8 p.m. Tuesday at the mortuary.