

Mannie Savage

Mannie Savage was born about 1898 probably in Union County, Tennessee. He was the son of William Esau Savage and Lucinda Ellison Sharp Savage. He married Pearly C. Hopper on September 5, 1920 in Tennessee. They moved to Kokomo, IN in 1923 where he was first employed at the Hoosier Iron Company. He later worked for Continental Steel Corporation. He retired in 1964. Mannie died January 27, 1965 of a heart attack. He was buried at Sunset Memory Garden Cemetery

source <http://members.aol.com/wilbsharp/savam01.htm>

Source:

Publication Date: