

Deborah Tackett Donald Tackett

Services for Deborah Lee Tackett, 33, and Donald Kent Tackett, 34, 11106 W. Road 500 North, will be at 10 a.m. Thursday in Ellers Mortuary. The Rev. Wayne Duncan will officiate. Entombment will be in Sunset Memory Gardens Mausoleum. Friends may call from 4 to 8 p.m. today at the mortuary.

Memorials may be made to the American Diabetes Association.

The Tacketts died Sunday, Dec. 23, 1990, in their home.

Deborah was born June 24, 1957, in Antigo, Wis., a daughter of Kenneth and Margaret (Hughes) Bedell. May 15, 1976, she married Donald K. Tackett.

She was a secretary at Wendy's Old Fashioned Hamburgers. She was a graduate of Western High School and a member of Judson Baptist Church.

Surviving are a son, Nicholas Tackett at home; a daughter, Heather Tackett at home; her parents of Kokomo; a brother, Jeffrey Bedell of Greentown; two sisters, Anna Nist of Whittier, Calif., and Linda Bedell of Kokomo; and maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hughes of Kokomo.

Donald was born March 6, 1956, in Kokomo, a son of Howard and Beatrice (Thomas) Tackett.

He was service manager at Wendy's and had worked at Continental Steel Corp. for 10 years. He was a graduate of Western High School and a member of Judson Baptist Church.

Surviving with the son and daughter are his parents of Kokomo; a brother, Jerry Lee Tackett of Russiaville; a sister, Mrs. Roger (Kathy Lynn) Ervin of Kokomo; and a half brother, Charles Edward Ross of Florida.