

Burnice Ullman

Burnice L. Ullman, 74, 1329 S. Washington St., died at 5 p.m. Tuesday, March 27, 1990, in Howard Community Hospital.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Ellers Mortuary.

Ullman services

Services for Burnice L. Ullman, 74, 1329 S. Washington St., will be at 11 a.m. Friday in Lutheran Church of Our Redeemer. The Rev. William Allison will officiate. Entombment will be in Sunset Memory Gardens Mausoleum. Friends may call from 4 to 8 p.m. today at Ellers Mortuary and one hour before services Friday at the church.

Ullman died at 5 p.m. Tuesday, March 27, 1990, in Howard Community Hospital.

She was born Oct. 1, 1915, in Tipton, a daughter of Arthur and Elizabeth (Schulenburg) Leininger. Feb. 14, 1943, she

m a r r i e d Ullman
William W. Ullman, who survives.

Also surviving are a son, The Rev. Walter W. Ullman of Evansville; two brothers, George Leininger of Tipton and Luther Leininger of Fort Wayne; two sisters, Lucille Black of Arcadia and Doris Hall of Muncie; and three grandchildren. A granddaughter preceded her in death.

She and her husband had owned and operated Kokomo Electric Hatchery for more than 30 years. She was a member of Lutheran Church of Our Redeemer, Ladies Service Guild, Lutheran Women's Missionary League and taught Sunday school classes. She was a 1933 graduate of Tipton High School.