

ISABEL J. YAGER

Aug. 27, 1916 - May 8, 2004

Isabel J. Yager, 87, Kokomo, died 1:35 p.m. Saturday, May 8, 2004, at Northwoods Village Health Care Center. She was born Aug. 27, 1916, in Kokomo, the daughter of James W. III and Catherine A. (Danhoff) Knight. On Oct. 13, 1939, in Kokomo's St. Patrick Catholic Church, she married Harold J. Yager and he survives.

She was a homemaker and had worked as a saleslady at J.C. Penney and H.P. Wasson Department Stores.

She was a member of St. Joan of Arc Catholic Church and the Altar & Rosary Society.

Surviving along with her husband are a daughter-in-law, Sue Yager, Kokomo; grandchildren, Mark and wife Beth Yager, Kokomo, Brenda and husband Tomas Hopkins, Kokomo, and Christopher and wife Amanda Yager, Russiaville; great-grandchildren, Michael Yager, Ashley Overton, Jacob Hopkins, Breanna Yager, Shelby and Hannah Hopkins and Tyler Yager, all of Kokomo; great-great grandchildren, Adrihana and Kaitlyn Yager. She was preceded in death by her parents; one son, Frederick T. Yager; one brother, James Knight Sr.; and one sister, Catherine Steinborn.

Services are 2 p.m. Wednesday at Ellers Mortuary Webster Street Chapel, 3400 S. Webster St., with the Rev. Dennis O'Keeffe officiating. Entombment will be in Sunset Memory Garden Mausoleum. Visitation is noon until service time Wednesday at the funeral home.

Source: Kokomo Tribune

Publication Date: 5/11/2004